Changed Your Mind About An Item?

If you have changed your mind about an item you have purchased and want to swap it for something different (rather than just getting a different size of the same item) we recommend that you return your original item for a refund and simply purchase the item you would rather have online at www.workingclassheroes.co.uk now. Doing this is far quicker than the standard process and you are less likely to be disappointed that what you hoped to exchange for has been snapped up by other customers.
